It is observed in a grand and spectacular way. All women and girls congratulate the men on holiday, and give presents to men and boys.

So, we congratulate all our boys on this day! And we wish them good luck, and health in their life!

Our Defenders – we proud of them!

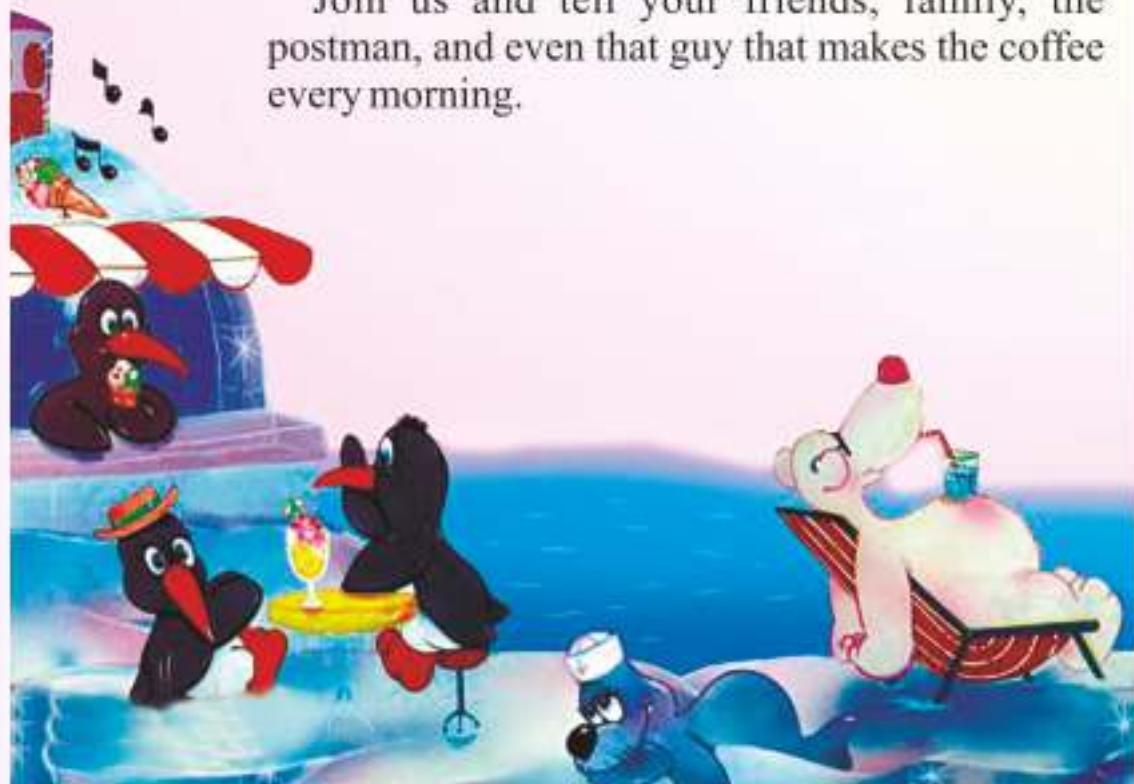

THE INTERNATIONAL THANK YOU DAY

The 11th January is an international holiday. On this day we dedicate our great blessings to special people in our lives.

Some people believe it was invented to sell "thank you" cards. But doesn't take much time to make someone feel special, sending a short thank you message or sharing an old photo.

Join us and tell your friends, family, the postman, and even that guy that makes the coffee every morning.

Share one day with your friends !

I'm very fond of pets and any domestic animals. My favourite pet is a dog. I have many dogs of all sizes, colour and kinds. When I was little my father bought a German Shepherd puppy. Its name was Gina and it was nice. We always walked and played with it. Then, my dad gave it to his friend. When I became older I fell in love with bulldogs. We bought one puppy. It was of creamy colours and its name was Max was very playful and funny. He could snore and grunt for hours. His favourite activities were eating, sleeping and playing. It was a lovely puppy. He knew that we loved him. When Max grew we took him to a special dog school, where it was trained to do different tricks. He became a good watch dog. Nobody could enter our house. Besides, Max was a smart dog. It ate too many sweets. Each time we left him alone, we put all the sweet away. My dear friends, what is your favourite pet? Tell me about it.

Little Red Hen found a grain of wheat. "Who will plant this?" she asked. "Not I," said the cat. "Not I," said the goose. "Not I," said the rat. "Then I will" said Little Red Hen.

So she buried the wheat in the ground. Then it grew up yellow and ripe. "The wheat is ripe now," said Little Red Hen. "Who will cut and thresh it?" "Not I," said the cat. "Not I," said the goose. "Not I," said the rat. "Then I will" said Little Red Hen.

So she cut it with her bill and threshed it with her wings. Then she asked, "Who will take this wheat to the mill?" "Not I," said the cat. "Not I," said the goose. "Not I," said the rat. "Then I will" said Little Red Hen.

So she took the wheat to the mill to grind. Then she carried the flour home. "Who will make me some bread with this flour?" she asked. "Not I," said the cat. "Not I," said the goose. "Not I," said the rat. "Then I will" said Little Red Hen.

So she made and baked the bread. Then she said, "Now we shall see who will eat this bread." "We will", said cat, goose, rat. "I am quite sure you would", said Little Red Hen, "If you could get it." Then she called her chicks, and they ate up all the bread. There was none left at all for the cat, or the goose or the rat.

No pains, no gains!
