A.NAVOIY AND Z.M.BOBUR

His real name is Nizomiddin Mir Alisher. His poems were under the pen-name of Navoi (in his old Uzbek language poems) and Foni (in his Persian language poems). Navoi is a great Uzbek poet, a representative of the Uzbek literature which is called Chigatoy literature in the West. He was born in Herat and spent the main part of his life there.

Z.M. Bobur was born in 1483, February 14, in Andijon. He was the fifth generation of Amir Temur. In 1494 Bobur was 12 years old and he became a ruler. In 1503 – 1504 he conquered Afghanistan. During 1519 – 1525s he tried to conquer India five times. He became the founder of Bobur's Empire. It lasted more than three centuries (1526 - 1858). He died in 1530, December 26, in Agra. His grave was in Agra but then it was brought to Kabul. He gathered his lyric testament in 1519 into "Kabul Devonu", and in 1528 – 1529 in "Hind Devoni".

AN INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAY

World Radio Day

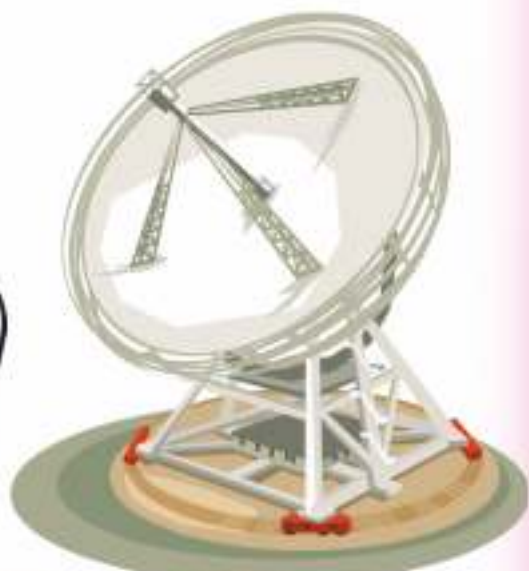

February 13 is World Radio Day. It celebrates the radio because it educates people, provides information, and promotes freedom of expression.

Each year the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) celebrates World Radio Day. Plans activities with broadcasters, organizations and communities around the world.

Being over 100 years old. The radio is one of the most popular ways to exchange information, provide social interchange, and educate people all over the world. It has been used to help people, to engage them in discussions on different topics. It can save lives during natural or human-made disasters, and it gives journalists a choice to report facts and tell their stories. The first World Radio Day was officially celebrated in 2012.

There was once a Countryman who possessed the most wonderful Goose you can imagine, for every day when he visited the nest, the Goose had laid a beautiful, glittering, golden egg.

The Countryman took the eggs to market and soon began to get rich. But it was not long before he grew impatient with the Goose because she gave him only a single golden egg a day. He was not getting rich fast enough.

Then one day, after he had finished counting his money, the idea came to him that he could get all the golden eggs at once by killing the Goose and cutting it open. But when the deed was done, not a single golden egg did he find, and his precious Goose was dead.
