TOGETHER

The more we are together, together, together
The more we are together the happier we are
For your friend is my friend,
And my friend is your friend
The more we are together,
The happier we are.

THE NORTHWIND AND THE SUN

The North Wind and the Sun had a quarrel about which of them was the stronger. While they were arguing, a Traveller passed along the road wrapped in a cloak.

"Let us agree," said the Sun, "that he is the stronger who can make traveller to put off his cloak."

"Very well," said the North Wind, and at once he sent a cold, strong blast against the Traveller.

With the first gust of wind the ends of the cloak whipped about the Traveller's body. But he immediately wrapped it closely around him, and the harder the Wind blew, the tighter he held it to him. The North Wind tore angrily at the cloak, but all his efforts were useless.

Then the Sun began to shine. At first his beams were gentle, and in the pleasant warmth after the bitter cold of the North Wind, the Traveller untied his cloak and let it hang loosely from his shoulders. The Sun's rays grew warmer and warmer. The man took off his cap and mopped his brow. At last he became so heated that he pulled off his cloak, and, to escape the blazing sunshine, threw himself down in the shade of a tree by the roadside.

Moral: Gentleness and kindness win where force and bluster fail.
