SPRING IS HERE SONG

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think I know?
I just saw a bluebird.
That is how I know.

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think we know?
We just saw a bluebird that is how we know.

Do the bird walk and strut
your thing.
Do the bird walk and flap your
wings.
Do the bird walk do anything
and look around for another
sign of spring...

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think I know?
I just saw a bee.
That is how I know.

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think we know?
We just saw a bee that is how we know.

Do the bee walk and strut
your thing.
Do the bee walk and flap your
wings.
Do the bee walk do anything
and look around for another
sign of spring.

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think I know?
I just saw a ladybug.
That is how I know.

Spring is here.
Spring is here.
How do you think we know?
We just saw a ladybug that is
how we know.

Do the ladybug walk and strut
your thing.
Do the ladybug walk and flap
your wings.
Do the ladybug walk do anything and look around for another sign of spring.

THE LEGEND OF SUMALAK

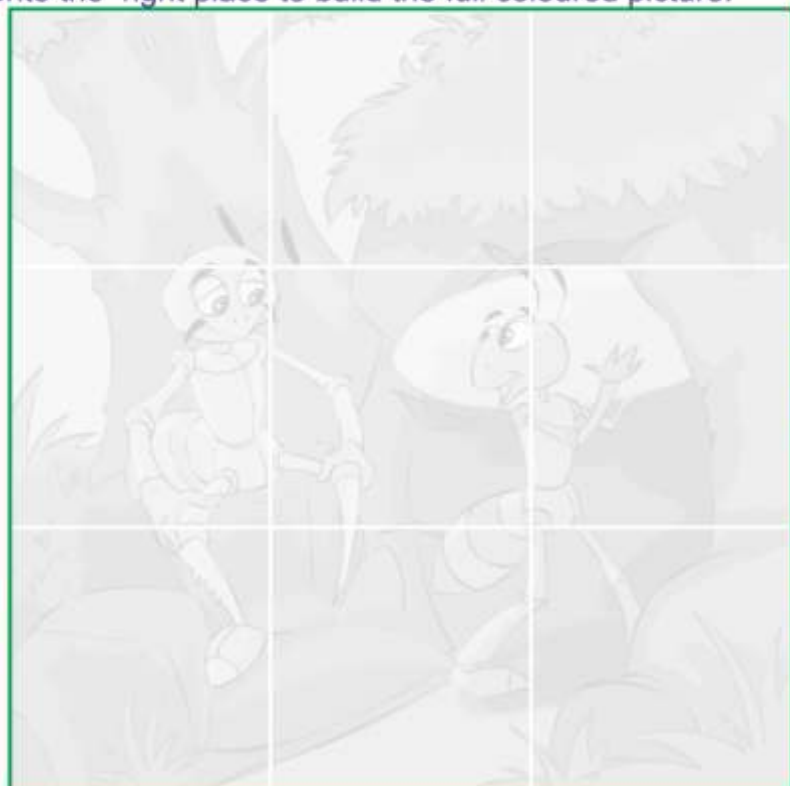

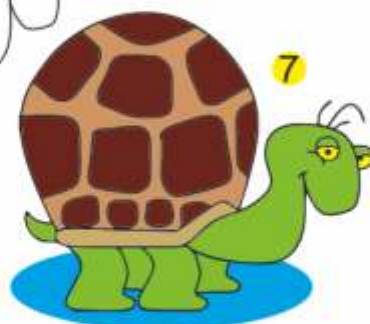

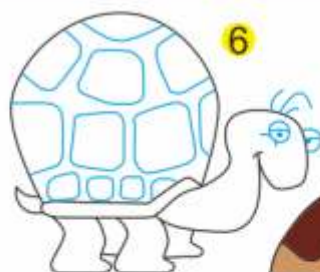

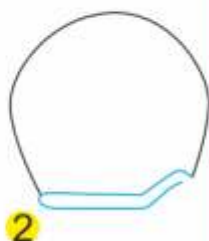

Once upon a time there was a woman with her children. One day her children were hungry and they want to eat something delicious. It was spring time and there wasn't anything to eat in family. All wheat was planted. The woman was wonder. She did not know what to do. She dig the ground and took new grown wheat. She squeezed the wheat and make a souse. Then she put it in the pot. The souse became boiling. They waited... waited... and waited. But there was not any result. The children who were tired from waiting fall asleep. At night seven angels came around the pot and said lots of wishes. They also put magic taste in it. In the morning when they opened the pot children saw an unusual dish. It was... Sumalak. In Persian "su" means seven, "malak"-means angels...
