A WISE OLD OWL

There was an old owl that lived in an oak. Every day he saw incidents happening around him. Yesterday he saw a boy helping an old man to carry a heavy basket. Today he saw a girl shouting at her mother. The more he saw the less he spoke.

As he spoke less, he heard more. He heard people talking and telling stories. He heard a woman saying that an elephant jumped over a fence. He also heard a man saying that he had never made a mistake.

The old owl had seen and heard about what happened to people. Some became better and some became worse. But the old owl had become wiser each and every day.

Moral of the story:

*You should be observant, talk less but listen more.
This will make you a wise person.*

CLOTHES SONG

LET'S SING

by Peter Weatherall

Let's take some socks and the shirt
and hang them out on a washing line.
They won't take very long to dry
because today the weathers fine
Tv dv me it's such a windy day,
the socks and the shirt have flown away.

Let's take some shorts and a skirt
and hang them out on a washing line.
They won't take very long to dry
because today the weathers fine.
Tv dv me it's such a windy day,
the shorts and the skirt have flown away

Let's take a t-shirt and some jeans
and hang them out on a washing line.
They won't take very long to dry
because today the weathers fine.
Tv dv me it's such a windy day,
the t-shirt and the jeans have flown away

Let's take a dress that is purple and green and hang it out on a washing line.
It won't take very long to dry
because today the weathers fine.
Tv dv me it's such a windy day,
now the dress has flown away.

Where are the socks? and the shirt?
Where are the shorts? and the skirt?
Where is the t-shirt? and the jeans?
Where is the dress that's purple and green?
Tv dv me its stuck up in the tree

Can you tell me all the clothes you see?
There are the socks and the shirt.
There are the shorts and the skirts.
There is the t-shirt and the jeans.
There is the dress that's purple and green.
